

Finland
North-Karelia
Lieksa

www.eraero.com

Padding Trip in the Wilds

Season: Summer

Description: We begin at Keljanpuro Brook or other convenient location with a welcoming coffee Karelian rice pies and sweet buns while being informed about the paddling equipment, techniques and safety precautions. The launching place will be selected by the groups wish for length of journey. After packing our equipment into the canoes, the trip takes us safely down a flowing river through beautiful Finnish wilderness. Along the way we take a break on the riverbank, frying sausages and making coffee over an open campfire.

Included in the price is guidance, the use of canoes and other paddling equipment, all meals according to the description. General liability insurance included.

Info: Please bring along clothing suitable for the weather conditions.

Group size: 3-16 persons

Additional information: In advance the group can choose to stay over night after paddling at Wildlife Lodge or at Wilderness camp. Paddling route will be selected due to groups choice of staying over night.

The organizer has a valid safety precautions plan. Keljanpuro Wildlife Lodge holds an alcohol licence for beer and cider.

